

Aromatherapy & the Chakras

What are the Chakras? How can aromatherapy balance them? This course will give you an understanding into how the Chakra system relates to our subtle and gross anatomy. It will show you how essential oils can strengthen and enhance our Charka system and bring about balance and wellbeing to our bodies in an unique way. You will be shown how to dowse the Chakras, choose the correct essential oils and a method of Application. Experienced tutors share their knowledge to show effective healing methods used for great results.
